Get Cozy With Us

Although the winter season comes with colder weather, I look forward to what it has to offer. From watching the snow fall, to knowing each day is getting longer and longer, it's an exciting time. Let's start with love; it's in the air! Westchester provides so many opportunities to celebrate this, from shops selling beautiful flowers to indulging in delicious chocolates. Or, commit to a full day of Westchester winter fun, starting with a morning breakfast, and ending with dinner and a show.

If you're more of the adventurous type, visit one of the many ice skating rinks around the area, or go for a hike in our great outdoors. Just choose your Westchester region (Rivertowns, Northern, etc) and explore what you can do. Westchester even has a wolf conservation center where you can visit these magical creatures during their favorite time of year. Westchester also has a great entertainment scene, see a show in one of the county's theaters. We also have many breweries to try and farmers markets to shop at. Feeling the winter chill? Cozy up with a delicious soup or stew offered by so many restaurants in the county.

So whether you're looking for a romantic day or indoor stay, a chocolate treat or a date that is sweet, flower shops or brews that hop, delicious bites or a show that excites, thanks for starting your Westchester winter here, and I'm wishing you a spectacular season.

Warmest Wishes,
Nina N. Harrison, Publisher

Westchester Date Guide: How to Have the Perfect Day

BY KAYLA GARRITANO

One of the great things about Westchester is that the County offers so much to do, eat, and see, even during the winter. If you're looking to do something special this season, whether it be with a significant other, your family, or yourself, look no further than here. We've got a guide to help you plan the perfect day in Westchester.

Start Your Day with Breakfast

Westchester is full of cute cafes and breakfast spots. If you're an early bird, wake up with freshly brewed coffee at a local coffee shop. A late riser? Choose a delicious brunch spot. Here are some options to start your day on the right foot.

Sunshine Roasters

12 Purdy Avenue, Rye, NY

914.848.4774

1932 Palmer Avenue, Larchmont, NY

914.341.1899

Opening as early as 6 AM during the week and 7 AM on the weekends, this is a perfect early morning spot to sip on a cup of Joe. Looking to provide the perfect cup of coffee every single time, founders John and Mike opened their first establishment in 2016. John, "a master roaster for years," and Mike, "a man with a passion for quality coffee," continue to roast every batch from their original shop, putting "lots of love and careful attention in each batch" and offering a variety of blends and single-origin beans to customers every day.

While sipping on one of their coffees like a regular black, espresso, latte, or cappuccino, also try something off their full menu, like avocado toast or house-made yogurt and granola bowl. Looking for lighter fare? Their baked goods section is perfect for a muffin, a sweet or savory croissant, or danish.

Fun fact: their Rye location was featured on the Apple TV series, “Your Friends and Neighbors.”

The Tasty Table

21 Campwoods Road, Ossining, NY
914.762.4000
thetastytableny.com

Voted one of Yelp’s “Top 100 Brunch Spots of 2024,” this eatery is a must-try; how can you not check out a spot that’s dedicated to brunch? Inspired by the owner’s personal love for food and hospitality, you’ll want to try out their “from scratch food with a trendy twist.” Their extensive menu features a savory section, offering loaded hashbrowns, brunch pizza, avocado toast, and more, and a sweet section for pancakes, waffles, and French toast. There’s also a section for Benedicts, salads, and handhelds.

Of course, no brunch is complete without drinks. While they have a great list of coffee and teas, and even a list of milkshakes, The Tasty Table also shines when it comes to mimosas. From classic orange to unique cotton candy, lavender, or prickly pear, enjoy one or a flight of four. Their specialty mimosas include a pear spritz or a bath bomb mimosa, and you can even build your own with a bottle of prosecco.

While there are no reservations for brunch, just walk-ins, you can come with your furry friend, as their outdoor setting is dog-friendly, and they even have a special menu for them.

Embrace the Outdoors

You may be surprised to hear that Westchester is just as beautiful in the winter as it is in the summer, maybe just a bit colder. However, there are still activities to do in the winter around the county that you can take advantage of.

Wolf Conservation Center

7 Buck Run Street, South Salem, NY
914.763.2373

Embrace the wildlife at a place that believes in respect, community, and passion. At the Wolf Conservation Center, you’ll find a team of people who are looking to advance the survival of wolves by inspiring a global community through education, advocacy, research, and recovery.

During the winter, the Conservation Center has unique programs, offering visitors a rare opportunity to see the wolves during their favorite time of year. You can learn about the mythology, biology, and ecology of wolf families and discover why winter is a special season. You must register in advance to experience one of their programs.

Badageoni

Get the authentic dishes of Georgia in Westchester County at this restaurant, which has been open since 2019. Along with the passion for sharing Georgian culture, customers can also enjoy traditional food, including decadent soups and stews. Try their Kharcho, a beef soup with tomato and rice. Or, the Chakapuli, a signature lamb stew slow-cooked in white wine with tarragon, scallions, sour plums, and herbs.

26 E Main Street, Mt. Kisco, NY

914.864.1666

Bistro de Ville

Established in 2023, four friends (Kevin, Mike, Billy, and Ed) came together with the goal of transporting customers to the heart of France through their dishes and ambiance. While enjoying their authentic French cuisine with global twists, order the French Onion Soup as an appetizer: an ooey, gooey, cheesy delight that'll warm the body.

185 Summerfield Street, Scarsdale, NY

914.574.6364

Butter + Brie

Combining French and American cuisine, dishes are classic and fresh, making it a unique culinary destination. Along with their extensive menu, enjoy their lobster bisque, featuring fresh basil, sherry, and cream, or their wild mushroom soup, which is full of mixed mushrooms, shallots, and cream.

68 Wheeler Avenue, Pleasantville, NY

914.449.6240

Dive Oyster House

"Dive" into delectable seafood dishes at the restaurant that brings the ocean to the table. Of course, with the freshest seafood comes flavorful soups, such as the creamy New England Clam Chowder or the rich Lobster Bisque.

Himalaya

A family-owned and operated business that specializes in homestyle cuisine of Nepal, Tibet, and India. With these roots, the soups are unique to Westchester and special to the taste buds. For example, try the Chicken Garlic Soup, full of chicken and potatoes mixed with Himalayan herbs and garlic. Or, the Dal, glazed lentils in broth.

*34 Triangle Center, Yorktown Heights, NY
914.302.2886*

Ladle of Love

It started when Leslie Lampert brought her homemade soups as a small gesture of gratitude to the local firefighters aiding the 9/11 attacks. Two years later, in 2003, her first shop opened and became the first consciously-sourced take-out food shop in Westchester that also specialized in small batch production. Sip on Tuscan Tomato, Chicken & Dumpling, or a classic Chicken Noodle.

*18 Palmer Avenue, Bronxville, NY
914.346.8883*

Liebman's Deli

An iconic Bronx Jewish deli takes on Westchester. It is known for many foods, but especially their massive bowls of matzo-ball soup, which consists of Liebman's Famous Old Fashion Chicken soup and matzo ball.

There's also the option of getting the soup with kreplach- traditional Ashkenazi Jewish dumplings.

*472 Ashford Avenue, Ardsley, NY
914.231.6222*

Mister Chen

A place that serves authentic Chinese cuisine, including foods from various Asian cities, means there are some pretty traditional dishes. This includes savory soups like Taiwanese Beef Noodle, Egg Drop, Tom Yum, and Diced Chicken and Sweet Creamy Corn.

*265 Mamaroneck Avenue, Mamaroneck, NY
914.777.1212/1221*

Nana's Dim Sum & Dumplings

Known for its exquisite and vast array of dim sum and dumplings, customers cannot forget about their delicious and traditional soups. For example, their Clay Pot Herbal Chicken Broth is full of tender chicken cooked in a clay pot with Chinese herbs; something so soothing and comforting.

*709 White Plains Road, Scarsdale, NY
914.487.0030*

Rafele Rye

Executive Chef and Co-owner, Raffaele Ronca, landed in a place that felt like home to open this Italian restaurant with Neapolitan flair. On the menu, there's an entree called "Zuppa Di Pesce," translating to English as "fish soup." They're serving up mixed seafood stew with house tomato sauce, garlic pepperoncino, and topped with baked pizza dough.

*26 Purchase Street, Rye, NY
914.481.8417*

Wellington's Soup Shack

A daily rotation of soups is lined up at this literal shack in a parking lot, including gluten-free, dairy-free, vegan, and vegetarian options. in the parking lot and taking the pedestrian foot paths up the sides of the dam.

In the winter, Croton Gorge Park is also a favorite spot for cross-country skiing and sledding. If you're into one of those activities, feel free to join along!

Stop for Hot Chocolate

Now that you've been in the cold weather for a little while, it's time to warm up with a cozy cup of cocoa.

Coffee Lab Roasters

7 Main Street, Tarrytown, NY

914.332.1479

493 New Rochelle Rd, Bronxville, NY

914.840.4106

While this spot is well-known for its detailed foam art on its lattes and cappuccinos, it also features some delicious hot chocolate. Which, you can also get art on. The magic ingredient is their sauce, steamed Black Label Ghirardelli. Add in your choice of milk, a little whipped cream if you desire, and you'll have a perfect hot cocoa.

They also have a European-style sipping chocolate – a rich, thick, and decadent drink made from melted real chocolate and milk or cream.

The Kneaded Bread

181 N Main Street, Port Chester, NY

914.937.9489

For a decadent hot chocolate, stop at this bakery, where this popular staple comes from a giant 11-pound bar of Belgian chocolate. The chocolate is melted into this dense, luxurious lava and swirled with milk, cinnamon sticks, and vanilla. Slowly simmering in a heavy pot for several hours, it is gently stirred often for the perfect pour every time.

Grab Dinner

Take out, quick service, sit-down, oh my! The number of food options in Westchester can seem endless. But what's great about that is there is something for everyone, from picky eaters to seafood lovers, vegetarians to carnivores.

Roof Taco

359 Mamaroneck Avenue, White Plains, NY
914.358.1880

While this Mexican restaurant is known for its exciting rooftop vibes through the summer, they don't let the outdoors go to waste during the colder months. In fact, they embrace it. When winter settles in, the igloos come out. Whether it's a party of two or a family outing, Roof Taco sets up an array of igloos on its rooftop.

Imagine dining as the snow falls around you, but you're cozied up inside a heated igloo, sipping on various types of margaritas and enjoying enchiladas, tacos, or one of their tortas gigantes. All you've got to do is walk through their beautifully decorated hallway, take the stairs or elevator up, and you're greeted immediately with the inside dining area. Just ask to be sat outside!

The Cookery

39 Chestnut Street, Dobbs Ferry, NY
914.305.2336

If you're in the mood for cozy food, look no further than The Cookery. Cold winter months scream comfort, and hearty meals will meet your needs. Their most famous dish, the duck-liver cannoli, is unique and satisfying. But if that doesn't tickle your fancy, you can try the pork osso bucco with polenta or their radiatore pasta with lamb bolognese.

For dessert? Their take on a s'more - the chocolate polenta with a salted cannoli shell and toasted marshmallow.

End the Night with Entertainment

Just because your stomachs are full doesn't mean you have to end your perfect Westchester day just yet. Westchester is packed with entertainment spots, so it's easy to cap your night off with a show. Local theaters supply a variety of entertainment, varying from small plays to concerts to comedy shows, and even hypnotists! You'll find something to keep you amused through the night.

The Capitol Theatre

149 Westchester Avenue, Port Chester, NY
9914.937.4126

With its original opening in 1926, the Capitol Theater started as a dignified playhouse, showing films like Casablanca, Gone with the Wind, and The Taming of the Shrew. By the late 60s, the Capitol Theater shifted its tone to the now-popular live music era and hosted artist like Janis Joplin, Traffic, Pink Floyd, and the Grateful Dead.

Sadly, in the early 70s, a new village live entertainment ordinance shut the Theater down, causing it to decay and remain dark. That is, until the early '80s when the Capitol Theatre was purchased by local developer, Marvon Ravikoff, who, after renovations, opened it back up for business.

In 1984, the Capitol Theater was added to the National Register of Historic Places, and although it went through a couple more rough patches, it still rocks on til this day under Peter Shapiro's reign. Now, see comedians like Anthony Rodia and Chelsea Handler, artists like Dropkick Murphys and David Lee Roth, or mediums such as Teresa Caputo.

Tarrytown Music Hall

13 Main Street, Floor 2, Tarrytown, NY
914.631.3390

Tarrytown Music Hall is a nonprofit and historic landmark, where their programs provide arts and education to over 100,000 people each year. Built by candy manufacturer William L. Wallace and designed by architects Theodore de Lemos and August Cordes, the Hall opened on December 12, 1885, with a then-new Gilbert & Sullivan opera titled The Mikado.

Throughout its time, the Hall went from being a successful single-screen movie theater to being threatened with turning into a parking lot, to becoming a nonprofit and a nationally recognized venue that hosts many forms of entertainment. Artists like Jon Bon Jovi and Tony Bennett have taken the stage, along with comedians like Amy Schumer and Howie Mandel, as well as many performers from other countries and cultures.

Hosting a variety of showings, Tarrytown Music Hall has something for the movie-goers and the time travelers. Families can enjoy the Music Hall's collection of film series, ranging from Disney movies to Singing in the Rain, or live performances from Be Like Blippi. For those looking to support local theater, come see Willy Wonka Jr., a ballroom dance recital, or the Westchester Symphonic Winds.

Will You Be Mine?

The History of Saint Valentine

BY KAYLA GARRITANO

Ever wonder how Valentine's Day came about? Well, it turns out that it's not as romantic and clear-cut as you would think. In fact, there wasn't just one story; there were multiple!

The story of Saint Valentine turns out to be a blend of historical figures and legends, more so focusing on a Christian priest in Roman times who went against the Emperor Claudius II. This priest went behind the Emperor's back and secretly married soldiers, as he believed marriage was a holy sacrament. Unfortunately, he was caught and imprisoned. This led to his execution on February 14th, around 270 AD.

One popular legend states that during this priest's jail time, he healed his jailer's blind daughter and signed his last note, "Your Valentine." However, another popular legend states he healed a judge's child. These statements eventually connected his martyrdom to what we know today as the celebration of love and romance.

However, there were rumors that the Bishop of Terni was the one to perform secret weddings and martyrdom, leading to his downfall on February 14th. The Priest and Bishop's stories hold a lot of similarity, which is why they are deemed to be the most famous. But because "Valentine" was a popular name in ancient Rome; there are at least 50 stories of different saints by that name. It is hard to tell how the holiday came about.

Scholars who have studied its origins have also said that there's very little basis, and that Valentine's Day actually became associated with love in the late Middle Ages due to the poet, Geoffrey Chaucer.

Chaucer wrote a poem in the 1300s called Parliament of Fowls that contained the line, "For this was on Saint Valentine's Day, when every bird comes there to choose his mate." Due to this, Europe took on the idea of romance. Chaucer and other writers celebrated romance. By the 1400s, writers who were inspired by Chaucer began creating poems known as "valentines" to their love interests. It was then that Saint Valentine and romance were linked together.

While the identity of Saint Valentine remains a mystery, one thing is for sure: it is fascinating to see how time molds cultures into celebrating a day of romance!

ICE, ICE, BABY!

Looking for some winter fun? Glide your way to fun places to ice skate around Westchester County and beyond.

BY KAYLA GARRITANO

Bear Mountain Ice Rink

Enjoy scenic views of Bear Mountain while skating on the large outdoor ice rink. Many of their visitors are repeat customers and referrals because the vibes of this skate rink are just that good. While the rink can be rented to private parties, it offers weekend-long public skating times until 9:30 PM on certain days. How thrilling would it be to skate at night with the pitch black of the mountains around you?

*3020 Seven Lakes Drive, Tomkins Cove, NY
845.786.2701*

Bedford Hills Memorial Park

While outdoor ice skating depends solely on how cold it is, it will be worth visiting Lake Marie. If guests see the green flag up, it means they are good to go, and ice skating on the lake can commence and guests are permitted to skate in the designated areas. And, of course, if the red flag is up, stay away!

60 Haines Road, Bedford Hills, NY

914.242.0298

bedfordny.gov/249/Town-Parks-Facilities

Dorothy Hamill Ice Rink

Located right over the Westchester border, visitors can have ice-skating fun through March. All ages can enjoy a variety of ice skating activities, including birthday parties, group ice skating lessons, youth hockey, public and private sessions, and even a town skating competition.

1 Sue Merz Way, Greenwich, CT

203.531.8560

Ebersole Ice Rink

Located within Delfino Park, visitors will find the ice skating rink. Proudly serving three local schools/teams, the rink also offers public skating sessions throughout the week along with figure skating lessons, learn-to-skate instructions, and youth ice hockey programs. Feeling a little peckish while skating? They also offer a concession stand for your hunger and thirst needs. While the rink is open for everyone, residents of White Plains can get free admission on Fridays.

110 Lake Street, White Plains, NY

914.422.1390

Greenwich Skating Club

This is a member-based club founded in 1954 that offers many opportunities for families. In fact, around 250 families are signed up. Featuring a private rink outdoors with a renovated clubhouse, pro shop, fireplaces, coaching rooms, and a snack bar, the club offers various skating opportunities. This includes an adult hockey league and even curling. Those curious to become a member can reach out via email or on their website.

15 Cardinal Road, Greenwich, CT

203.622.9583

Hommocks Park Ice Rink

Since 1975, this Westchester public skating facility has continued to offer fun for the whole family. With special promotions and events offered throughout the season, there's even a wide variety of year-round recreational community events like Character Skate. Spectators are also free during ice skating sessions (and the area is heated).

*140 Hommocks Road, Larchmont, NY
914.834.10696*

Ice Hutch

Enjoy skating all-year round at this large ice rink. Opening in 1997. The Hutch has been serving the skating community by offering all-level skating lessons, weekly public skating, figure skating, and hockey sessions.

*655 Garden Avenue, Mount Vernon, NY
914.699.6787*

Murray's Skating Center

The Skating Center has provided both residents and non-residents with quality skating programs and special events since 1960. Newly renovated, the Center now offers a mezzanine viewing level so onlookers can see those skating below, whether it be for recreational skating, hockey, or lessons.

*348 Tuckahoe Road, Yonkers, NY
914.377.6469*

Palisades Center Ice Rink

The Palisades Mall has a little bit of everything...and that includes a whole ice rink! From public skating, to stick time, to freestyle to the Tuesday Night Hockey Clinic, there's a great way to take a break from shopping at this mall. The New York Rangers even host some "Junior Rangers" Girls Hockey events for free, where young girls get to learn to play the sport.

*4900 Palisades Center Drive, West Nyack, NY
845.353.4855*

Playland Ice

Playland isn't just a summertime amusement park- it's loaded up for winter fun as well. Owned by American Sports Entertainment Centers, LLC, the largest independent owner/operator of ice rink facilities in the United States, this particular rink offers a wide variety of programs and is home to many college, high school, and youth hockey and skating associations. Come for the learn-to-skate and learn-to-play group instruction, professional instruction and training, youth and adult camps and clinics, private lessons, daily freestyle, public stick times, and pickup hockey sessions, or drop-in training and recreational play.

*100 Playland Parkway, Rye, NY
914.481.5941*

The Rooftop at Pier 17

This venue is known for its lively concerts during the summertime. However, did you know that it's also available for wintertime fun? The Winterland Rink at Pier 17 is in the Seaport District and gives phenomenal views of the NYC skyline and the Brooklyn Bridge. This is truly a unique way to see the City.

89 South Street, New York, NY

Sal J. Prezioso Mountain Lakes Park

This is one of the many county parks that are open for skating during the winter season. Mountain Lakes Park hosts their off-season skating at their summer camp grounds' site. Of course, only when it's cold enough! It also hosts snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, and more.

*201 Hawley Road, North Salem, NY
914.273.3230*

Westchester Skating Academy

The academy has so much to offer for all skill levels, all ages, and all different types of skating. For starters, visitors can reserve spots for a public session and can add on skate rentals as well. Fees range anywhere from $6 to $21, and there are various day and time options. For those looking to learn how to skate, the Academy offers various opportunities, including ice hockey lessons for two and three-year-olds all the way up to the adult and teens class for basic skill levels. There are also plenty of opportunities for figure skating classes, ranging from freestyle to private lessons.

*91 Fairview Park Drive, Elmsford, NY

Life is Like a Box of Chocolates

Give your loved ones something sweet this winter with delicious chocolate from local Westchester spots.

BY KAYLA GARRITANO

Chocolations

A Zagat-rated artisan chocolate factory, Chocolations, has gained fame by appearing in the New York Times as well as on national television. It has also won awards and accolades. Try their signature truffles, crunchy bark, and their various amounts of molded chocolates.

607 E Boston Post Road, Mamaroneck, NY
914.777.3600

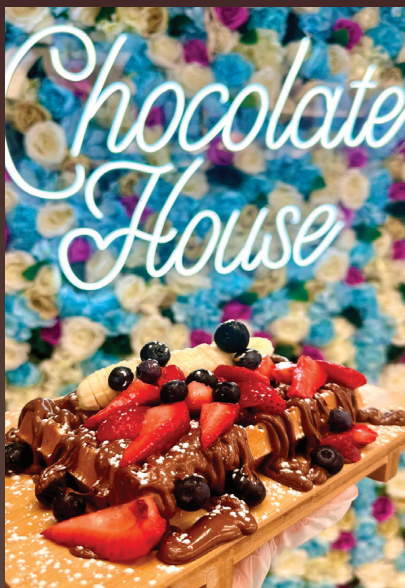

Chocolate House Yonkers

Every visit is a unique experience here, where customers can enjoy irresistible chocolate sweets and dips, specialty crepes, waffles, milkshakes, and smoothies late at night. To be a chocolate-lover's ultimate destination, the House plans to expand to reach sweet tooth's everywhere (and it's already got quite a few spots)!

328 Tuckahoe Road, Yonkers, NY
914.202.9558

Chocolate Works Scarsdale

Slowly transitioning into its new name, "Westchester Chocolate," this online shop based in Westchester gives you specialty products made to order. From custom molds and pops, to pretzel platters, to corporate gift baskets, graham crackers, and Oreo cookies, customers can find just what they're looking for. Furthermore, enjoy birthday parties, chocolate-making events, and chocolate traveling parties.

cocoa

In 2002, Angela Ingrao's dream came true: opening up a chocolate shop with sweet taffy-colored pink walls. There are endless chocolate options: bark, milk, white, and dark. You can also get brownies or tinfuls of Belgian chocolate.

2107A Boston Post Road, Larchmont, NY
914.834.6464

Lil' Chocolate Shoppe

A beloved gem to the community, the family-run gourmet chocolate and candy shop has been satisfying sweet teeth since 1986. The one who started it all, Annette, has a passion for chocolate and community, combining the two to make her dream of opening a chocolate shop come true.

Posh Pretzels

In 2010, this pretzel palace was created because of a mom's passion for creating all things sweet, delicious, and artistically appealing. Try a stuffed pretzel filled with Nutella, Dubai chocolate, or cookie dough. Indulge in a platter or box with a variety of toppings such as sprinkles, milk chocolate crunchies, and rainbow M&Ms. From its unique flavors to its detailed and sophisticated packaging, it's what makes this shop special.

*7 N Broadway, Tarrytown, NY

SugarHi

Twin sisters, Hillary and Elissa Weinhoff, started the company in 2017. Hillary's 20+ years of cake decorating experience, paired well with Elissa's people skills, helped bring the community together, including being proud supporters of charities and local schools. Along with custom cakes, enjoy other goodies like candy, charcuterie, or baked goods platters, consisting of Oreos with school logos, naughty brownies, smores bars, cosmic brownie dupes, and other decadent chocolatey treats.

*380 Main Street, Armonk, NY
914.273.4777*

The Dressed Pretzel

All about quality, passion, and connection, this shop is devoted to gourmet, artisanal, handcrafted Belgian chocolate-covered pretzels. Chocolate types include dark, milk, white, ruby, and gold, and dress them up with fun toppings. From s'mores to caramel to peanut butter and strawberry, to lemon meringue and more, find the pretzel that seems the most delicious (or get a box with a fun variety).

*141 Larchmont Avenue, Larchmont, NY
914.630.1116*

The Pod by Cocoa Compassion

This business is about giving back. Crafting "bean-to-bar" chocolate, they help create direct, global markets for cocoa farmers. They also help locally support mental health and wellness programs. Try locally made products such as drinking chocolate, dark chocolate with sea salt, or chocolate bites, or have globally made chocolate bars from the Philippines, Costa Rica, Brazil, Trinidad and Tobago, and more.

*11 Cedar Street, Dobbs Ferry, NY
914.236.4145*

Venchi Chocolate & Gelato Westchester

Located inside the Westchester Mall, this chain specializes in selling handcrafted chocolate bars and truffles as well as Italian-style gelato. And yes, gelato includes creamy dark chocolate. Unique and classic chocolate flavors like pistachio, hazelnut, and giandua. There are also no sugar-added selections.

Stop and Smell the Roses

Looking for a lovely bouquet to give to that special someone? Check out some of these flower shops around Westchester to find the perfect match.

BY KAYLA GARRITANO

Artistic Manor Flower Shop

Committed to offering the finest floral arrangements and gifts, this family-owned and operated business offers flowers for the surrounding Westchester area. They offer a variety of bouquets for many different occasions, and even sell plants, fruit baskets, and offer flower subscriptions.

211 Wolfs Lane, Pelham, NY
914.738.1502

Blossom Flower Shops

It all started in 1925 when Thomas Kegan opened Blossom Flower Shop in Fordham, NY. With his ambition, progressiveness, and marketing expertise, the shop flourished. When retiring in the 1980s, he left the shop in the hands of his son, Thomas, who moved the business to Yonkers and then passed it down to his son, Kevin, who opened a shop in White Plains. Sandra Brennan, a long-time worker in the Blossom Flower business, is now running it.

Colonial Village Flowers

Owner Robert Sloop grew up in a family-owned flower business, giving him 25 years of experience in the floral industry. He's able to understand the customers' needs and is able to bring their visions to life, whether it's for a big party or a small occasion. The flowers are from Holland, and the shop also carries hand-picked tropical plants.
1497 Weaver Street, Scarsdale, NY
914.723.2888

Enchanted Flowers

Known for hand-delivering premium floral arrangements and gift baskets, this floral shop is here to help strengthen relationships with its customers. They want to celebrate as well as give love and support as they hand you their crafted arrangements.

296 Huguenot Street, New Rochelle, NY
914.576.9288

Green Wood Flowers

Serving areas of Connecticut and New York, the design team of Jenny, a floral designer, and Thomas, a houseplant designer, join forces to make sure their customers have enjoyable buying experiences and satisfaction with their services.

151 Purchase Street #3, Rye, NY
914.305.1511

Harrison Flower Mart

This small, family-owned and operated business is committed to offering the finest floral arrangements, gifts, and even candles and greeting cards. Nestled in the heart of downtown Harrison, they serve many local Westchester businesses as well, making sure they will meet customers' needs for all occasions.
